CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
CHURCHES

The error of meameric and hypnotic practices, both ancient and modern, was emphasized in the lesson-Sermon Sunday, December 1, in all branches of The Mother Church. The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. A citation from the Old Testament presented Ezekiel's words: "Thus saith the Lord God: Woe unto the foolish prophets, that follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! . . . They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The Lord saith: and the Lord hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word. Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The Lord saith: it, albeit I have not spoken? . . . And ye shall know that I am the Lord God."

A correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy was as follows: "Christian Science goes to the bottom of mental action, and reveals the theodicy which indicates the 'rightness' of all divine action, as the emanation of divine Mind, and the consequent wrongness of the opposite so-called action—evil, occultism, necromancy, mesmerism, animal magnetism, hypnotism."

Recipes

ORANGE OMELET

(Serves 1-6 persons)

6 eggs
2 tablespoons powdered sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon cornstarch
2 teaspoons lemon juice
1/2 cup orange juice
Sliced oranges for garnishing
Extra powdered sugar
Separate egg yolks from whites.
Mix together the sugar, salt, cornstarch, lemon and orange juice.
Beat the egg yolks light and add this mixture to them. Beat the egg whites stiff and dry. Fold in the first mixture and turn into a well-oiled omelet pan. When done garnish with the sliced oranges sprinkled with the powdered sugar and serve.
